[a] If a student has a background in a foreign language, proficiency in that language will be determined by testing. Should a student be deemed proficient, other course work will be chosen for this credit hour requirement. See the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences foreign language requirement in the Undergraduate Catalog for further explanation. Please note that one or two remaining semesters of foreign language may be completed upon matriculation to the major provided the student submits a written Request for Prerequisite Exception with their application.

[b] Students may choose from the following courses at UIC: MATH 121, 123, 145, 160, 165, 180; PHIL 102 or 210; STAT 101; COMM 201; CLJ 262; POLS 201; PSCH 343; and SOC 201. See the BA in Public Health undergraduate catalog statement for more information.

[c] PUBH 100 may also be used to satisfy the Individual and Society or US Society General Education category listed above.

[d] PUBH 110 may also be used to satisfy the Individual and Society or World Cultures General Education category listed above.

[e] For Fall 2013 admission only, the program will consider applicants who have not yet completed PUBH 110 provided the student submits a written Request for Prerequisite Exception with their application.

[f] Students should consult the General Education section of the Undergraduate Catalog for a list of approved courses in this category.

[g] List the elective courses you have completed/will complete to reach the minimum of 60 semester hours. Attach an additional page if necessary.
