PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

2018 –
present

Founder and Chief Strategist

Äkta Strategies, LLC
Elkhart, Iowa

Delivering authentic solutions for systems change. Advise practitioners, mid- and senior-level managers, and executives on strengthening their system leadership skills and how to apply systems methodologies to their positions. Provide strategic guidance to programs and organizations on expanding their scope to include policy, system, and environmental strategies for greatest impact within public health, nutrition, and food systems. A sample of clients include the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Foundation, Association of State Public Health Nutritionists, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, UCLA School of Public Health, Arizona State University College of Health Solutions, The Healthiest State Initiative, and the Iowa Department of Public Health.

2017 – 2018

Strategic Advisor, Public Health Nutrition, Food Systems and Public Policy

Independent Consultant
Elkhart, Iowa

Advise clients using comprehensive interventions to combat leading causes of non-communicable diseases through coordinated education, policy, system, and environmental strategies. Use current scientific evidence and systems thinking to inform initiatives and policies that advance public health and population well-being. Services include technical consultation; facilitated discussions; project and contract management; business development; communications and marketing; professional development; strategic planning; formative research; program planning, implementation and evaluation; network and coalition development; and policy development.

2014 – 2017

Executive Director, Senior Executive Service

United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) Center for Nutrition Policy and Promotion
Alexandria, Virginia/Washington, DC

Appointed by President Barack Obama in July 2014 as a Senior Executive to provide administration, strategic direction, leadership, and fiscal oversight for the USDA Center for Nutrition Policy and Promotion (CNPP). CNPP works to improve the health and well-being of Americans by developing and promoting dietary guidance that links scientific research to the nutrition needs of individuals. Directed a scientific agency with 36 FTEs, 15 contractors, multiple contracts, and assisted with managing an annual operating budget of more than $110 billion (FFY2016). Using system constructs, developed and implemented a comprehensive five-year Agency strategic plan. Developed, maintained, and advanced continuous quality advancement activities to support robust food and nutrition systematic review methodologies (Nutrition Evidence Library) and nutrition and economic analyses that supported policies and programs. Co-led the development and promotion of the 2015-2020 Dietary Guidelines for Americans, the nation's science-based food and nutrition policy for reducing chronic disease and improving the health of all individuals. Expanded national communication and outreach programs using MyPlate that apply science-based messages and advanced consumer, nutrition, and economic knowledge and behavior. Served as a Presidential Delegate to Italy and as an ambassador for the Agency to build relationships, networks and coalitions. Provided testimony to the U.S. House of Representatives Agriculture and Appropriations Committees and delivered numerous briefings to White House and Congressional staff. Served as a representative on intra- and intergovernmental committees and national and international workgroups and events. Exceeded performance standards for critical elements including leading change, leading people, business acumen, building coalitions, and delivering results. The Agency received several recognitions including the USDA 2016 Abraham Lincoln Award.

2006-2014 Founder, Chief Executive Officer, and Lead Consultant
Environmental Nutrition Solutions, LLC
Elkhart, Iowa

Established and led a consulting firm that applied comprehensive solutions to address leading causes of diet-related chronic diseases using coordinated policy, system, and environmental strategies. The central tenet of the company was to use current scientific evidence and theoretical public health models to support the linkages between the health and availability of natural resources (soil, water, air, energy), to the health of the food system, and to health of populations. Services included technical consultation; project and contract management; business development; communications and marketing; professional development; strategic planning; formative research; program planning, implementation and evaluation; network and coalition development; policy development; grant writing; and website and social media expansion. Clients included academia; local, state, and Federal government; non-profit and community-based organizations; cooperatives; domestic and international professional health associations; farming organizations; and the private sector. Managed project staff and directly secured more than $450,000 in grants to support healthy food access and food system work in Iowa. Served as a preceptor and mentor to undergraduate and graduate students, interns and residents, and FoodCorps Service Members.

2004-2016 Founder and Managing Editor, Journal of Hunger & Environmental Nutrition (JHEN)
Taylor & Francis Group, LLC
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

Conceptualized and launched a peer-reviewed academic journal dedicated to examining issues such as food access, food security, food production, agriculture, natural resources, and the interconnectedness of nutrition and health at local, national, and international levels. In addition to selecting an editor, column editors, and editorial board members, a contract was negotiated with the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics for JHEN to be an added benefit for members of the Hunger and Environmental Nutrition Dietetic Practice Group. Oversaw contract negotiations, promotion and marketing, manuscript submissions, editing special theme issues, and serving as a reviewer. JHEN was originally published by The Haworth Press which was acquired by the Taylor & Francis Group, LLC. Service was provided in a volunteer capacity.

2013-2014 Senior Fellow and Endowed Chair
Minnesota Institute for Sustainable Agriculture, University of Minnesota, College of Food,
Agricultural and Natural Resources Services
St. Paul, Minnesota

Provided technical consultation to the University of Minnesota Extension Center for Family Development to advance a coordinated public health nutrition approach to community food system networks. This included applying public health principles to operations and evaluation strategies using policy, system, and environmental approaches and the Spectrum of Prevention Model. Planned and executed a workshop in conjunction with the Prevention Institute for 31 state officials (state health departments, Extension, centers for sustainable agriculture) in Iowa and Minnesota. Workshop attendees operationalized the Spectrum of Prevention framework while assessing, planning and evaluating healthy food access and food system initiatives within their respective agencies.

Established Standards of Professional Performance (SOPP) for Registered Dietitian Nutritionists in Sustainable, Resilient, and Healthy Food and Water Systems for the Academy of Nutrition & Dietetics. Organized and co-lead a 12-member workgroup of national experts for 18 months. Organized and facilitated a three-day gathering of workgroup members in St. Paul in July 2013 that included interactions with Minnesota public health and food system experts, focus group reviews, and SOPP revisions. The standards were published in the March 2014 Journal of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics.

2012-2014

Food Systems Consultant

Iowa Department of Public Health, Division of Health Promotion and Chronic Disease Prevention
Des Moines, Iowa

Provided technical consultation to the Iowa Department of Public Health in securing a Centers for Disease Control and Prevention Community Transformation Grant. The aim of the $3 million grant was to advance tobacco-free living, active living and healthy eating, and quality clinical and other preventive services using policy, system, and environmental approaches. Developed tools and training materials for state and local public health agencies to integrate community-based food systems into public health infrastructure. Provided training and technical assistance to 24 rural and urban county public health officials on incorporating food system assessment and planning activities into the Community Health Needs Assessment and Health Improvement Plans. Although grant funding ended in the third year of a five-year project, the food system assessment resources are available and used by the 99 county public health agencies in Iowa to advance food security, healthy food access, and diet-related chronic disease prevention initiatives.

2008 - 2014

Founder and Facilitator

Iowa Food Access & Health Work Group

Provided administrative, facilitation and development support for a statewide community of practice focused on cultivating a just and diverse food system that eliminates hunger, increases access to nutritious food and advances the health of all Iowans. Secured more than $275,000 in funding to support formative research; leadership and coalition development; social marketing campaign development, implementation, and evaluation; and website and social media development and promotion. Developed an engaged leadership team and a vibrant community with more than 600 partners as a unit within the Iowa Food Systems Council. Partners included federal food and nutrition assistance program administrators, emergency food system providers, public health and nutrition practitioners, non-profit organizations, academia, and corporate groups. Secured four years of funding to support the work group including the signature initiative Cultivate Iowa, an evidence-based food gardening social marketing campaign that promotes food gardening and produce donation as strategies that strengthen community food systems.

- 2008-2014 Co-Founder and Organizer
Iowa Food Systems Council
- Provided facilitation, and strategic planning for the launch of the Iowa Food Systems Council, a statewide member-based non-profit organization. Activities included visioning and strategic planning; building communities of practice; grant writing; food systems assessment and planning; program, research and policy development; leadership development; web development; social media and outreach; and obtaining 501(c)3 status. Secured more than $160,000 to support assessment and planning activities. Co-authored a landmark report Cultivating Resilience - A Food System Blueprint that Advances the Health of Iowans, Farms and Communities. The Iowa Food Systems Council disbanded in 2016.
- 2008-2009 Food and Society Policy Fellow, Class VI
Institute for Agriculture and Trade Policy
Minneapolis, Minnesota
- A competitive communication and policy fellowship focused on the interdependence between the health of natural resources (soil, water and biodiversity) to the health of the food system and impacts on public health. Areas of emphasis included health equity, food security, access, systems and social change, and public policy. Activities included developing education and public policy materials; advocacy (specifically at the federal level with the 2008 Farm Bill and the 2010 Healthy Hunger-Free Kids Act); writing; interviews; podcasts; presentations; and social media campaigns. Established a gardening campaign and community of practice resulting in greater interest and investment in gardening by the White House and USDA (People's Garden). Funded by the W.K. Kellogg Foundation.
- 1997-2006 Regional Nutrition Consultant
Iowa Department of Public Health (IDPH), Bureau of Nutrition & Health Promotion
Des Moines, Iowa
- Provided administration, technical consultation, surveillance, and grant oversight to the Iowa Special Supplemental Nutrition Program for Women, Infants & Children (WIC). Activities included policy development and implementation; contract management of more than $40 million to local agencies; technical assistance and training to local public health and community action agencies; compliance and quality assurance audits; data system development, training and implementation; Pregnancy Nutrition Surveillance; food insecurity and hunger surveillance; program planning, implementation and evaluation; conference planning; grant writing; and staff training and orientation. Collaborated with Title V Maternal and Child Health and Title X Family Planning programs. Co-facilitated the IDPH Community Health Needs Assessment & Health Improvement Planning initiative and served on numerous inter- and intragovernmental committees including the Public Health Redesign/Transformation Team and the Pharmaceutical Stockpile Emergency Response Team.
- 1996-1997 Graduate Teaching Assistant & Graduate Research Assistant
Iowa State University, Department of Family and Consumer Sciences Education and Studies
Ames, Iowa
- Provided faculty teaching assistance for International Studies in Family & Consumer Sciences courses. Organized and hosted international faculty as guest speakers using online video tools. Served as a nutrition research assistant on the USDA NC200 and NC219 multistate research project focused on stage-based interventions to increase fruit and vegetable intake in young adults. Conducted data collection and analyses using SPSS and assisted with manuscript preparation.

1992-1994

Affiliate Program Coordinator

American Heart Association, Iowa Affiliate
Des Moines, Iowa

A non-profit statewide organization dedicated to reducing death and disability due to cardiovascular disease in Iowa. Developed and distributed health and nutrition education materials; coordinated and staffed volunteer community, school, healthcare, and workplace committees; promoted national educational and awareness campaigns; supported development activities; and provided technical assistance to regional directors. Collaborated with the American Lung Association and the American Cancer Society on the Smoke-Free Class of 2000 initiative.
